$$\underline{j-r}$$

A horizontal line of handwritten cursive 'm' characters on ruled paper. The characters are written in a fluid, continuous stroke, starting with a vertical line and a diagonal down-right, followed by a loop and a final vertical leg. The line is approximately 1000 units long and 50 units high, with a bounding box of approximately [113, 100, 886, 145].

A horizontal line consisting of 100 small, evenly spaced diagonal tick marks pointing to the right. The line is approximately 800 pixels long and 10 pixels high, centered on the page.

A row of 12 identical, small, dark, irregular shapes arranged horizontally on a grid background. Each shape is roughly triangular with a jagged, serrated edge. They are positioned in a staggered pattern, with each subsequent shape shifted slightly to the right of the previous one.
